

THERMAL CALCULATION OF THE FOOTWEAR SOLES MADE THROUGH VULCANIZATION IN MOULDS

Elena Chirilă¹ & Cornelia Ionescu Luca²

¹“Gheorghe Asachi” Technical University of Iasi-Romania, Faculty of Materials Science and Engineering

²“Gheorghe Asachi” Technical University of Iasi-Romania, Faculty of Textiles, Leather and Industrial Management.

Corresponding author: Cornelia Ionescu Luca, cionescu@tex..tuiasi.ro

Abstract: During the process of the vulcanized products manufacturing, the mould often changes the temperature of the cavity. The paper presents some contributions in thermo calculation of the vulcanization process of the rubber blend in manufacturing. The calculation depending on the optimum adopted vulcanization technological regime using the vulcanization equipments in an efficient way.

Key words: footwear, sole, mould, thermo calculation

